NOTIFICATION OF PARENTAL RESPONSIBILITY IN A DELINQUENCY CASE
Pursuant to RSA 169-B:2-a

Any parent or parents, guardian or other person responsible for the welfare of a juvenile alleged to be delinquent has the obligation to:

1. Personally attend and assure the attendance of the juvenile at all court hearings;
2. Personally attend and assure the attendance of the juvenile at all meetings with Health and Human Services and other collateral support service agencies occasioned by the action;
3. Fully participate in all services ordered by the Court including, but not limited to, substance abuse treatment, parenting classes, mediation, and community service;
4. Pay a portion, or all, of any restitution of fines imposed by the Court, when the Court finds payment by the parent to be in the interest of Justice and rehabilitation; and
5. Supervise the minor's compliance with all orders of the Court and conditions of release and probation including, but not limited to, curfew, school attendance and general behavior;

Failure to supervise or otherwise accept responsibility as set out above may be treated as contempt of court, punishable by up to a $1,000.00 fine and 90 days imprisonment. It shall be a defense to any such charge of contempt that the parent, guardian or such other person or persons having custody of the juvenile made reasonable efforts to comply.
